SINGPOST APPOINTS WILSON TAN AS GROUP CEO

Singapore, 12 October 2007 - Singapore Post Limited (SingPost) today announced the appointment of Mr Wilson Tan Wee-Yan as its Group Chief Executive Officer effective 15 October 2007. Mr Tan will also join the SingPost Board as a Director.

Mr Tan, 49, joins SingPost from NEC Solutions Asia Pacific Pte Ltd (Singapore) where he held the position of Managing Director. Since 1993, Mr Tan has held key management positions with regional responsibilities in multi-national companies including Apple Computers, Informix, Software AG and Xerox Corporation, developing and growing the businesses in Asia and the region.

SingPost's Chairman, Mr Lim Ho Kee said: "We look forward to welcoming Wilson on board. With his leadership and extensive regional experience, Wilson is well-equipped to lead SingPost during its next stage of development."

Added Mr Lim: "Since our listing in 2003, SingPost has been transforming from a dominant provider of postal services to an organization which now offers a wider range of products and services, including agency and financial services. The senior management team has been instrumental in growing the business, executing our prudent growth strategy focusing on enhancing our core business, leveraging our retail network and expanding regionally."

Mr Tan said: "I am delighted to join SingPost. In the face of the increasing challenges in the postal industry, the organization has shown much resilience, versatility and innovation to reverse declining mail volumes while introducing new revenue streams to grow the business. I certainly look forward to helping the Group hone its competitiveness and to accelerate its momentum."

Mr Tan, who was named the IT Person of the Year 2005 by the Singapore Computer Society (SCS), presently holds various appointments including President of SCS and International Advisor to the Thailand Software Park. He also sits on the advisory board of various education institutions including the Institute of Systems Science (ISS) and Singapore Polytechnic School of Media and Infocomm Technology.

He is a past board member of the National Computer Board (NCB) and the Infocomm Development Authority (IDA). He had also served as Chairman of the Singapore IT Federation (SITF), Asia Oceania Computer Industry Organization (ASOCIO) and the National IT Standards Committee and was a member of the National Standards Council.

Mr Tan has served 14 years as a Board Member of Bizlink Singapore, a welfare organization dedicated to assess, train and place disabled clients.
