SingPost Waives Postage for Cheque Donations to Mercy Relief Limited and Singapore Red Cross

Singapore, 15 May 2008 – Singapore Post Limited (SingPost) announced today that it is waiving postage for cheque donations to Mercy Relief Limited and Singapore Red Cross Society, which are raising funds for the Myanmar Cyclone and China earthquake disasters.

The public who wish to send cheques to these humanitarian organisations also need not include any addresses on the envelope. All that they are required to do is to indicate on the envelope either “Mercy Relief Limited” or “Singapore Red Cross Society”, and drop the sealed envelope into any of SingPost’s 800-plus post boxes. The public is advised to contact the relevant organisations for enquiries and details such as exact payee names.
