SingPost and BNI offer Alternative Channel on Self-service Automated Machine (SAM) for Remittance Service to Indonesia

Singapore, 23 March 2009 – Singapore Post Limited (SingPost) and PT. Bank Negara Indonesia (Persero) Tbk (BNI) have jointly achieved another milestone by offering an alternative channel for remittance service to Indonesia.

With immediate effect, CASHOME Remittance Service to Indonesia via BNI is available 24/7 at selected SingPost's Self-service Automated Machine (SAM).

The "step-by-step" user-friendly SAM interface allows customers to remit money anytime round the clock to their recipients back home in Indonesia. All a customer needs to do is to apply for a FREE CASHOME Card to become a registered CASHOME User and together with his/her NETS Card issued by any bank in Singapore, he/she can start enjoying the convenience of sending money to Indonesia in just a few clicks!

Customers will also be delighted to know that their recipients back in Indonesia can access the funds easily at BNI's extensive network of 1,106 branches and close to 20,000 ATMs across Indonesia.

SingPost's Executive Vice President for Retail & Financial Services, Mr Loh Choo Beng said: "We are pleased to create yet another landmark initiative to bring our partnership with BNI to a greater height. It is also about bringing greater convenience to our customers when we introduce more CASHOME Remittance touch-points on 24/7 alternative channels such as our SAM, to complement our 62 post offices islandwide."

BNI's Treasury & International Managing Director, Mr Bien Subianto added: "With the integration of SAM into our remittance partnership, it will greatly enhance the customer's experience which will result in mutual benefits to all parties."

For more information on CASHOME Remittance Service to Indonesia via BNI, please call 1605 or visit any of the 62 post offices.
