Making Business Easier.

What is International Bulk Mail?

International Bulk Mail refers to:

- A minimum of 500 pieces of printed papers per posting.
- The printed papers must have no commercial value.
- All mail items within the single posting must be homogeneous (uniform in format, size, and weight).
- The posting must originate from Singapore.
- Not applicable to Registered Mail and Value Added Services such as advice of receipt, express services, insurance and copy of signed delivery receipt.

Printed Papers With No Commercial Value:

Documents and printed materials that are primarily informational, promotional, or administrative materials not being sold or traded as merchandise.

Examples:

Printed Papers (Primarily Informational or Promotional)

These generally cover bulk-distributed, standardized information and materials:

- Magazines and Periodicals: Publications with fixed titles that are published at regular intervals. These will usually contain the following example of details:
 - Local MCI Number [MCI (P) No. 018/08/12006]
 - International ISSN Number [ISSN 0882-4657]
 - Issue Number (No. 2/10)
 - Issue Month (Jan/Feb 25)
- Company Newsletters and Circulars
- Annual Reports
- Catalogues
- Newspapers
- Direct Mail (e.g., promotional brochures, flyers, and leaflets detailing offers or information)

Notes:

Customer Reimbursement for Additional Charges

Customers utilising International Bulk Mail Rates are responsible for fully reimbursing SingPost for all additional charges, costs, or losses incurred due to:

(a) Item Handling: The returning of items or re-forwarding them to the correct destination.

(b) Remail Status: Any instance where the mail is rejected or returned as Remail item and is subsequently charged to SingPost at a higher settlement rate by the destination country.

Volumetric Package Weight Requirements

SingPost reserves the right to impose the full published rates (found on www.singpost.com) if the mailbag lodged by customers for delivery to a single destination does not meet the following minimum weight requirements:

a) Full mailbag (80cm height), weighs less than 12kg.

b) Half mailbag (40cm height), weighs less than 6kg.

Rates are applicable to corporate customers only. All information is accurate at the time of print.

How To Check Delivery Rates?

Determine Mail Type

Identify if your items are classified as Printed Papers with no commercial value (informational/administrative documents).

Confirm Mail Volume and Destination

Determine the total number of pieces per posting. Use the rate table if your volume is 500 pieces or more. For mail volume below 500 pieces or for Letters, please submit your enquiry via www.singpost.com/contact-us/business-enquiry.

Zone Chart

Use the Zone Chart to identify your destination country and zone, and estimated delivery timeline.

Weight

Check your item's weight against the Weight column (in grams) to find the applicable rate for its destination zone.

Estimated Delivery Time Notes

- Delivery Estimates: All listed delivery times are estimates; actual delivery may vary based on external factors.
- External Delays: Any delays encountered within the destination country (e.g. local postal issues or transportation bottlenecks) are beyond the control of SingPost.
- Customs Processing: Items may be subject to customs inspection and clearance, which can add to the delivery time.
- Geographical Scope: The estimated delivery time applies primarily to major cities and mail exchange offices. Please allow additional time for delivery to destinations in remote or secondary areas.
- Peak Season: During festive or peak mailing seasons, we advise customers to factor in an additional 10 working days to the estimated delivery time.
