Stamp to Celebrate 48th Anniversary of ASEAN Community
Unprecedented Joint Stamp Issue by 10 ASEAN Nations

SINGAPORE, 7 August 2015 – Singapore Post (SingPost) and the national postal service providers of ASEAN countries have collaborated to jointly and concurrently issue the first ever identical image of the ASEAN Community stamp on 8 August as ASEAN celebrates its 48th Anniversary.

“August 8 is a special and significant day for ASEAN as it celebrates its 48th ASEAN Day. For more than four decades, ASEAN has successfully promoted regional peace through mutual respect and cooperation with the objective towards a cohesive South East Asia. We are pleased to participate in the joint issuance of the stamp in Singapore,” said Mr Woo Keng Leong, Senior Executive Vice President and Head of Postal Services of Singapore Post.

The stamp commemorates 48 years of strong and close relations between ASEAN nations. The issuances of the stamps depicting the same image in the 10 countries reflect solidarity among member nations, and further reinforces ASEAN’s motto of One Vision, One Identity, One Community.

Design of the Joint Stamp Issue of ASEAN Community stamp resulted from a stamp and postmark competition held in February 2015 in Bangkok Thailand with entries submitted from ASEAN countries. The winning entry was a submission from Vietnam.
