Singapore-Russia joint stamp issue
Issuance Date: 1 June 2018

SINGAPORE, 1 June 2018 – Singapore Post Limited (SingPost) today released a joint stamp issue by Singapore and Russia, commemorating the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

The stamps were unveiled this morning at the General Post Office by H.E. Mr Andrey Tatarinov, Ambassador of the Russian Federation to the Republic of Singapore, and Ms Aileen Chia, Director-General (Telecoms & Post) and Deputy Chief Executive (Policy, Regulation & Competition Development), Infocomm Media Development Authority of Singapore.

The joint issue by SingPost and RusMarka features the top city parks of both countries, whose futuristic and sustainable architecture have made them national icons: Singapore's Gardens by the Bay and Moscow's Zaryadye Park.

Situated in the heart of Singapore's Marina Bay, Gardens by the Bay is a national garden and premier horticultural attraction that showcases plants from all around the world, including species from cool, temperate climates to tropical forests and habitats.

Zaryadye Park is an urban park located next to the Red Square in Moscow. Officially opened on Moscow City Day on 9 September 2017, it offers views of the Moscow River and the Kremlin, with exhibits that replicate ecosystems from various regions of the Russian Federation.

The joint issue stamps are valued each at $1.30. Pre-cancelled First Day Covers affixed with both stamps or with a Miniature Sheet are available at $4.05 each.

The stamps and Miniature Sheets will go on sale from 1 June 2018 at all post offices, the Philatelic Store @ GPO, and the Singapore Philatelic Museum.
