SingPost Unwinds QSI Minority Cross-Shareholdings

- Mutually-agreed exercise of options with Alibaba in line with previously agreed terms
- Transaction results in expected cash inflow of approximately S$55.86 million
- Based on the valuation of QSI<sup>1</sup>, there is an indication of potential goodwill impairment of up to S$77.86 million

SINGAPORE, 16 April 2025 – Singapore Post Limited ("SingPost") today announced the mutually agreed unwinding of cross-holdings with Alibaba Group Holding Limited ("Alibaba") based on previously agreed terms.

Based on an agreement dated 20 January 2023, SingPost and Alibaba will mutually exercise options to unwind respective minority cross-shareholdings in Shenzhen 4PX Information and Technology Co., Ltd. ("4PX") and Quantum Solutions International Pte. Ltd. ("QSI").

"The execution of this agreement enables the efficient unwinding of our cross-holdings, allowing SingPost to simplify our investment portfolios, and pursue strategic objectives," said Simon Israel, Chairman of the Board, SingPost.

QSI is majority-owned by SingPost (66 per cent) with Alibaba holding a minority stake (34 per cent). QSI, in turn, holds a 17.61 per cent stake in 4PX, a majority-owned subsidiary of Alibaba's logistics arm, Cainiao.

Under a deed of undertaking ("DoU") in accordance with previously agreed terms<sup>2</sup>, SingPost will acquire full ownership of QSI while Alibaba's logistics arm, Cainiao, increases its stake in 4PX.

<sup>1</sup> The valuation refers to the KPMG valuation report as of 30 September 2024, which valued QSI at approximately S$108.5 million.

Cainiao will acquire QSI's 17.61 per cent stake in 4PX for approximately S$92.75 million<sup>3</sup>. Concurrently, a capital reduction<sup>4</sup> in QSI will see Alibaba's shares cancelled. SingPost will pay Alibaba S$36.89 million for their 34 per cent stake in QSI<sup>5</sup>. The payment amount is based on a fair value assessment by KPMG as of 30 September 2024, which valued QSI at approximately S$108.5 million.

SingPost anticipates receiving a cash inflow of approximately S$55.86 million<sup>6</sup> from this transaction. In connection with the valuation<sup>7</sup>, there is an indication of impairment on the goodwill amounting up to S$77.86 million carried on the investment in QSI. Any such impairment will be recognised and disclosed in the Company's full year results currently scheduled for release on 15 May 2025.

<sup>4</sup> If the selective capital reduction exercise fails, as defined in the DoU, there is a fall-back plan to ensure the joint venture ends.
